BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Suggests that the presiding officers of the Courts who sign the bills of copying fees maybe empowered to deface the stamp slips, a certificate to that effect being recorded on the bills, ~~taking~~ or ~~which~~ requests sanction for the entertainment of two addl hands for doing the extra work involved in the present procedure.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

O & Q

According to the ~~Civil~~ Rules of practice - Civil - dd 28.1.1913 & Criminal - dd 27.3.1913, stamp slips in support of the bills have to be defaced and attached to the bills. These slips are, as the Comptroller states, counted in the treasury before the bills is paid and

If the Comptroller's suggestion to empower the presiding officer of the Court concerned to destroy the slips, a certificate to that effect being recorded in the brief, is accepted, there will no doubt be a saving of labour. The number of such slips received in a month is reported to exceed 30,000.

As the draft rules were returned to the Chief Court, the exact wording cannot be reproduced.

SIR,

In inviting reference to the Rules of Practice regulating the grant of copies and the appointments of copyists and examiners in Civil and Criminal Courts, issued by the Chief Court, with the approval of Government, I have the honor to state that under these rules (Vide para 18 of Rule of Practice No.153 dated 25th January 1913 and para 6 of Rule of Practice No.85 dated 27th March 1913) the stamp slips have to be attached to the bills in which the amounts due to the copyists and examiners are claimed. The number of stamp slips received every month exceeds Rs.30,000/- and a year's experience of the audit of these bills has shewn that the procedure prescribed in the above Rules of Practice entails enormous work on the Treasuries and this office. The Treasuries have to satisfy themselves before payment of the bills by actual counting that the slips are all attached and this office before admitting them has to count them over again.

2. As each stamp slip represents the equivalent of the remuneration payable to a copyist and examiner and has therefore a money value, I passed an office order that these stamp slips should be destroyed in the presence of the Assistant Comptroller in charge of the Treasury Account Department of my office in which these bills are audited and this officer who has already a heavy charge, finds it impracticable to undertake this additional work and devote the time required to see to the destruction of these documents in the midst of his other pressing engagements. The Superintendents of the Treasury Account Department of the office who are also heavily worked can ill afford to ~~find~~ find time for counting the slips before submitting them to the gazetted officer in charge. These remarks apply also to the other members of the audit staff viz., the District Auditors much of whose time is taken up in counting these slips. I would therefore suggest that the presiding officers of the Courts who sign the bills may be empowered to destroy the stamp slips, a certificate being recorded on the bills to the effect that the stamp slips (the number should be specified) have been destroyed in their presence. The presiding officer of the Court has necessarily to satisfy himself that the stamp slips have all been produced before signing the bill and he may well be entrusted with their destruction. This, while entailing no additional work or responsibility on the several Courts, will afford immense relief to the Treasuries and this office where the slips are all now accumulated and disposed of.

3. If however Government consider it desirable that the procedure laid down in the Chief Court Rules of Practice should continue for the reason that the check exercised by my office in this respect will be an additional safeguard and prevent any irregularity in the Courts, I request you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the entertainment of 2 additional hands on 30-3-45 for doing the extra work involved.

SIR,

I have the honour to acknowledge your letter No. J/696/cts 299-13-2 dated 8th September 1914, in the matter of check and destruction of the stamp slips attached to the commission bills of the copyists and the Examiners in the several Civil and Criminal Courts of the State. The letter appears to suggest that a case for entertaining an additional establishment has not been made out. In this connection, I may state that the additional establishment required is not merely for the purpose of destroying stamp-slips accumulated once in 3 years or 3 or 6 months, but for the responsible work of checking and counting and subsequently destroying every month nearly 40,000 stamp-slips (the total number of slips for July is 38,560). The urgent need for an additional establishment for this, not altogether light task, (working to an average of about 667 slips per capita per diem for the additional establishment) has been explained in my first letter. It is not, therefore, quite clear how the work of counting and checking these stamp-slips every month, of keeping them next in safe custody for sometime

D.O.NO. 201

Comptroller's Office,

Bangalore 29th October 1914.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your D.O. J.1133/Cts. dated this day I write to say that these stamp slips are received not daily but twice every month along with the Lists of Payments. If by slips received on one day is meant what we get from Treasuries on any particular day, the bundle of slips sent to you for inspection shows what we receive on 2 days.

I have included in the statement a column to show the number received with the 1st and 2nd Lists respectively which may be taken as the receipt of one day.

Superintendent Mr.Murthi Rao goes to you with the bundle to explain particulars.

Yours sincerely,

G.Sreenivasa Iyer, Esq., B.A., M.L.,

Assistant Secretary to Government,

Judicial Branch,

General and Revenue Secretariat.
